

Einar Sigurdsson.

Bass player. Studied electric and acoustic bass and jazztheory in the FIH musicschool in Iceland.

Further studies on double bass in Vienna, Austria where he was a member of different classical chamber groups but continuing playing Jazz music with various artists.

Einar has been a member of the Symphony Orchestra of Barcelona in Spain and played for years in the Icelandic Symphony Orchestra and The Orchestra of the Icelandic Opera. Besides being a member of Ensemble Úngút he has been playing in various Icelandic music projects and is a founding member of Spottar, which is Icelandic Folk band based in Reykjavik.

Besides his musical activities he works as a Sound Reordist in the Icelandic Radio and Television Broadcast Company. He has won several prizes worldwide for his work there ,mainly for the Radio Drama department.